ABSTRACT

The article analyzes the patronage of the Temurid princes in science, literature and art on the basis of historical sources. Works and works of art created on the initiative of Timurid princes are presented. It also examines the landscaping work carried out in the country under the auspices of the princes and analyzes the direct participation of princes in cultural life. It is recognized in various countries of the world that our great ancestor Sahibkiran Amir Temur and the Temurids made a worthy contribution to the development of world civilization and culture. Particularly noteworthy are the issues of direct participation and sponsorship of the Temurid princes in cultural life.
