ABSTRACT

Documents in the archive of the Khiva khanate – yarlyks, have a great importance in the comprehensive study of information about the history of the khanate. Today, the study of official documents of this type are one of the urgent tasks of researchers. Moreover, these documents belonging to the khan's chancellery not only study the political, socio-economic situation, culture and history of the country, but also help in researching their important aspects that are known in general. This presented article's aim is to provide an analysis of the terminology of sharia and fiqh judgements found in the khan's yarlyks belonging to the series of Khiva documents.
