

THE LIFE OF THE PEOPLE OF YATHRIB BEFORE ISLAM

Z.N. Shakirova*

*Associate Professor,
Department of Al-Azhar for Arabic Language and Literature,
International Islamic Academy of Uzbekistan,
Tashkent, UZBEKISTAN
Email id: z_shakirova@gmail.com

DOI: 10.5958/2278-4853.2023.00092.7

ABSTRACT

It is known from history that the present-day city of Medina in Saudi Arabia was called Yathrib before Islam. Jewish tribes such as Qaynuqa, Nadir, Qurayza and Arab tribes Aws and Khazraj lived there. This article highlights the pre-Islamic lives of the Jewish and Arab tribes.

KEYWORDS: Yasrib, Arab, Jew, Tribe, Elder, Utm.

REFERENCES:

1. Abdulaziz Salim. Tarikh al-Arab qabla al-Islam. – Al-Iskandariyya.
2. Akram Diya al-Umari. Al-Siira al-Nabawiyyah al-Sahiiya. V. 1.–Al-Madinah: Maktabat al-ulum wal-hikam, 1994.
3. Ahmed Ibrahim ash Sharif. Makkah and al-Madinah fi al Jahiliyyah and ahdi ar rasul.
4. Abdul Basit Badr. At-Tarikh ash-Shamil li-al-Madinah al-Munawwara. Vol. 3.– Al-Madinah, 1993.
5. Javad Ali. Al-Mufasssal fi tariq al-arab qabla al-islam. Vol. 10. – Baghdad, 1993.
6. Safi ar Rahman Mubarakfuri. Ar-Rahiq al-Makhtum.
7. Osman Nuri Topbash. Istoriya prorokov-5. Prophet Muhammad Mustafa-2.
8. Hasanov A.A. Ancient Arabia and early Islam: 1 book. Ignorance. – Tashkent: Tashkent Islamic University, 2001. 9. Hasanov A. History of Mecca and Medina. – Tashkent: Labor, 1992.