ABSTRACT

This article examines some of the issues and specific problems of translation theory and draws scientifically based conclusions about the organic means and translation skills between the translator and the author of the work. The main criteria for the quality and perfection of the translation are the solutions to its problems. The article also describes the emergence of the world of translation, the early stages of development and historical roots, as well as the emergence of Uzbek translation. There is also information about translators and scholars who have a place in the field of translation, as well as their translations.

KEYWORDS: Translation, Stylistics, Translator, Author, Work Of Art, Linguistics, Method, Synchronous.
